

Research

Textbooks, guides,
and teaching tools

High School Yearbooks

School board records and scrapbooks of newspaper
clippings

Museum Hours

The Museum is open on Fridays 1:00 p.m. to 4:00p.m. or by appointment. Research, tours and lectures can be arranged.

The mission of the Davenport School Museum is the collection and acquisition of records, books, mementos and memorabilia of historical , educational and cultural significance to the Davenport School District and the use and enjoyment of the Community.

563-336-5000

Free Admission and Handicapped Accessible

E-mail: museum@davenportschools.org

Supported by the Riverboat Development Authority

Brochure created by West High Information Management students—2005

Davenport School Museum

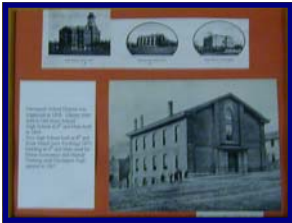

Superintendent's Desk

Davenport School Administrative Center
Lower Level
1606 Brady Street
Davenport, IA 52803

Come Join Us—View The Past!

Buildings

School History

The Davenport School District was organized in 1858. In 1864 this building was bought for a High School.

Tyler School

Old Tyler School at East High and Grand Avenue is presently a playground

Student Life

Projectors

Kindergarten Room

Indian Clubs

Typewriter

Medals

Art

People

A. S. Kissell
1858-1864

Pheobe Sudlow
1874-1878

J. B. Young 1878-1907

Frank L. Smart
1907-1936

Early Superintendents of the Davenport Schools